

Behnoosh Behnamnia is an professional musician who was trained extensively in her native Iran, studying under world-renowned masters of both kamancheh and violin. These related stringed instruments express a deep cross-cultural understanding of music, that is firmly rooted in Persian traditions as well as its modern and contemporary sounds. Behnamnia has extensive experience as a music teacher and is currently an instructor at the University of Kurdistan (Iran). She has performed as a soloist and with ensembles in Iran and the Netherlands. A newcomer to Toronto, Behnoosh is excited to share her music with Canadians.